

THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

October 24, 2021 ♫ 10:15 AM

All Saints Episcopal Church

Bay Head, New Jersey

++++++

Welcome! And thank you for joining us from your home for today's service. While we are not able to physically come together today for worship, we appreciate your spiritual presence and participation. You can connect to Zoom via this link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83247904469>

As you entered our Zoom sanctuary, your audio was automatically muted. That's not because we don't want to hear each other's voices; it's because too many voices make things sound chaotic. Our two readers will act as the voice of the people. We invite you to participate as you would like in those places in the service during which the people normally respond or pray together, with your device muted.

We will convene for a voice-filled coffee half hour just following the end of our worship.

Before the service begins, we invite you to spend some time in quiet prayer. By doing so, you will create a sacred space in the presence of God.

The Liturgy of the Word

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

Celebrant says

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

The Celebrant says to the people

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us the gifts of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain what you promise, make us love what you command; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

A Reading from Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Job answered the Lord:

"I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?'
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
'Hear, and I will speak;
I will question you, and you declare to me.'
I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
but now my eye sees you;
therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes."

And the Lord restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the Lord had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. The Lord blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. He also had seven sons and three daughters. He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. And Job died, old and full of days.

Psalm 34:1-8

1 I will bless the Lord at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the Lord; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; *
let us exalt his Name together.
4 I sought the Lord, and he answered me * and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me * and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.
8 Taste and see that the Lord is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

Hebrews 7:23-28

The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office; but Jesus holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. Consequently he is able for all time to save those who approach God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, blameless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. Unlike the other high priests, he has no need to offer sacrifices day after day, first for his own sins, and then for those of the people; this he did once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints as high priests those who are subject to weakness, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

The Gospel

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark. (10:46-52)
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

the Rev. Canon Joan Pettit Mason

Celebrant Let us proclaim our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
 he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
 and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

- Intercessor* Father, we pray for your holy catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.
- Intercessor* Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;

Prayer for our new rector

O gracious God, you know our unique needs as we await the arrival of the Rev. Kathryn King, our new rector. Help us to listen anew to you and each other so that we may discern the direction you would have us go. Be with us as we create a new, shared vision and guide our steps with your heavenly compass, that we may accomplish our task inspired by imagination and not memory. Finally, we ask you blessing upon the All Saints Church family as we continue to pray for the Rev. King, who is on her way to us. All this we ask in Jesus' name, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect.

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession of Sin

The Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Peace

The Celebrant says to the people

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The Offertory

The Celebrant says the offertory sentence

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God.
(Ephesians 5:2)

The Doxology

The Holy Communion

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

<https://hymnary.org/hymn/EH1982/s130>

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation to Holy Communion

The Celebrant says

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

(A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from actually receiving Holy Communion.)

The celebrant invites the following prayer to be said by all:

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving as I proclaim your resurrection. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer

The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Announcements

The Blessing

Celebrant

Life is short and we do not have too much time to gladden the hearts of those who travel the way with us. So be quick to love and make haste to be kind. And rest assured that God is infinitely more concerned with the promise of our future than the mistakes of our past. And the blessing of God Almighty, Creator, Redeemer and Life-Giving Spirit, be with you now and always. AMEN

Worship Schedule Update

Through November 14, All Saints will maintain its current schedule of services. The Rev. Frank Goss will be preaching at Holy Eucharist at 9 a.m. on October 24, and the Rev. Mary Frances Schjonberg will preside on Halloween (October 31).

♦Normal service schedule is set to resume on November 21, when the Rev.Kathryn King will preside in the sanctuary at her first services at 8 and 10:15 a.m.For those who cannot attend or who are still not comfortable worshiping indoors,you can join from home. We plan to begin livestreaming service, which will also be recorded and posted for viewing at your convenience. And we are planning to set up a Zoom link so that parishioners at home can join the in-person CoffeeHour remotely. More information will be coming soon!♦All Saints Day is Monday, November 1. Are you interested in coming to an in-person church service that evening? Please let the Church Office know by Tuesday, Oct. 26, at noon.

Note: A service on All Saints Day will be dependent on parishioner interest and the availability of clergy. The senior warden will keep you posted!

St. Nicholas Bazaar Needs You!

Save the date! This year's St. Nicholas Bazaar will take place on Saturday, November 13 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Due to the ongoing pandemic, we will not be serving lunch and will not be accepting donations of clothing. All other donated items can be dropped off at the conference room Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 9 a.m. to noon. For more information, call Debbie McCullam (908-380-4805) or Penny Witt (201-919-7139).

Artists & Crafters: Holiday decorations for the home, tree, and gift giving are needed. Your own creations would be welcome!

Children's Corner: New and nearly new games, dolls, books, and small furnishings are suggested.

Santa's Attic: Antiques, china, crystal, silver, brass, serving pieces, collectibles, costume jewelry, and small pieces of furniture are all gratefully accepted.

Book Lovers: Consider recycling some "good reads." Fiction and non-fiction books—as well as audio books—are acceptable. No textbooks, magazines, DVDs, or cassette tapes, please.

Mrs. Claus' Gourmet Kitchen: Homemade jams, jellies, confections, pickles, relishes, and soups are needed now. Later, we will be asking for cookies, breads, muffins, pies, and cheese spreads.

New this year, the NJ Chamber Singers will have a table featuring some of their CDs for purchase and information about their December concert at All Saints!

Getting Ready for a New Rector

One Sunday during Zoom Coffee Hour, the Rev. Canon Joan Pettit Mason gave us some pointers on how to make our new rector feel welcome. First, she reminded us we need to expect that the Rev. King may do some things a bit differently, and she advised taking time to appreciate those differences and to avoid making comparisons to any past priests. She also advised us to imagine ourselves being new to town. What will the Rev. King need to know? Can you recommend a doctor, a veterinarian, a dog groomer, the best grocery stores, where to get the best pizza, where to find the best antiques, gifts, or cards, where to walk, where is the best indoor pool, or other ideas? Please send your suggestions to admin@allsaintsbayhead.org by October 29 so we can create a resource booklet for Kathryn.

Thank You from the Outreach Committee!

That delicious aroma you smell isn't just the baked goods; it's the sweet smell of success! Thank you to everyone who stopped by to purchase cookies or brownies this past weekend. Outreach raised $232, courtesy of your sweet tooth and your generosity! Phyllis Kata is also very grateful to all who stopped by the baked goods table just to leave a donation. Outreach had already received $130 donated through checks. With the proceeds from the bake sale and Outreach's $38 contribution, All Saints will be sending $400 (our goal) to Episcopal Community Services of the Diocese of New Jersey. As you may recall, an anonymous donor in the diocese pledged to match all donations up to $10,000. The diocese has tasked Fr. Robin Pierre, affiliated with St. Elizabeth's in Elizabeth, to use these funds to coordinate support not only for Haitians already in New Jersey but any who may arrive in the months ahead. Many thanks are also due our kind bakers, Barbara Tuzio, Julie Chowansky, and Chris Kyse, for making the cookies and brownies we sold. As always, Outreach appreciates parishioners' support and hopes you enjoy the goodies!

Newsletter Deadline: If you have a news item you'd like included in the upcoming newsletter, please submit it to Meg Beresik (megberesik@comcast.net) no later than 3 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 28.
